Notes and Comments.

HAVE you elected your delegates to the National Conference?

BROTHER Koontz of Conemaugh, Pa., reports another baptism.

BROTHER Bemenderfer, of Dunlaps, Ind., reports another accession by baptism.

THE prospects for the University for next year are in every way encouraging. Fall term opens September 10.

REFRESHING showers all over the land gladden the hearts of our people. Prospects are good for a large crop of corn.

IN our comments a few weeks ago, upon the death of J. C. Nielson, we erred in saying that he was the father of N. C. Nielson.

FIVE weeks from Tuesday, July 30, to the time of National Conference. Elect your delegates now, and send their names to brother J. Allen Miller.

BROTHER Haskins, pastor of the Johnstown church, called at this office, one day last week. We had quite an interesting conversation, and only regretted that he could not remain longer. His church increased his salary and granted him a five week's vacation. This shows their appreciation of his services.

WE shall expect a good report from the Union meeting to be held at Round Hill, August 24, 25. We hereby delegate brother Geo. A. Copp, to make said report.

FROM the report found in this issue by Brother Trent, it is clear that the Johnstown church and its various branches or departments, are in a prosperous condition.

THE new church edifice at Marion, Ind., is now completed, and will be dedicated to the service of the Master, August 4, at which time we expect to be present, to assist the brethren.

WE ask your careful perusal of "The Ashland '95 Convention," by H. M. Lichty. Brother Lichty is a practical church worker, and his suggestions merit the attention of our readers.

ARE you in need of a first class Bible? We will mail you a regular $5 Bible for $2.75 and give you the EVANGELIST to the end of the year free, or $3.50 for the Bible, and the EVANGELIST one year from date.

HAVE you read "Theology of the Communion Service," by B. C. Moomaw? Send five cents in stamps and receive a copy by mail. Per dozen, 50 cents, 25 copies, $1.00. Can you not use a dozen in your congregation?

THE program of the King's Children Society for National Conference, is published in the August number of the K. C. paper. It should have a place on the regular program, and be made a special feature of the conference.

HAVE you read Our Bible, Our Church, Our Country, by J. D. McFaden? Price $3.00. We will send you this book by mail, with a subscription to the paper the balance of the year—all for $1.75, or $2.50 for the book, and the EVANGELIST one year.

ORDERS for papers, quarterlies, tracts, books, etc., coming to this office, are filled in the afternoon of the same day. Thus we can assure our customers promptness.

THE LaPaz, South Bend, Gerhart and West Union, Ind., congregations have organized on a plan similar to that of the Union Meeting of Elkhart county, Ind., churches. Two union meetings are held each year, some years four.

THE following delegates to Conference have been reported, since last issue: J. C. Grimes, Elkhart, Ind.; C. Rowland, Emma Lichty, Emma Puterbaugh, Lanark, Ill. Alternate for Lanark, C. P. Puterbaugh, B. F. Puterbaugh and Frank Weber.

ONE of our readers, in renewing his subscription, says: "Times are rather close here, but the EVANGELIST seems to be a staple article in our family. Therefore we can well make the sacrifice on something else to pay for it." The same spirit of sacrifice on the part of others would add one half to the present subscription list of the paper.

TO INSURE publication the same week, church news should reach us not later than Saturday morning. As it is, much of it comes with our Monday morning's mail. A good time to report your church news is Monday or Tuesday. The Sabbath is over, and if there are any items of interest to the brotherhood in general, if there have been any special services, any baptisms, accessions, deaths, marriages, etc., make a note of them, stating the facts as briefly as possible, mail the beginning of the week, if not too far away Wednesday or Thursday will do, and the next paper will contain your report. There should be a correspondent in every congregation, and where pastors do not attend to this matter themselves, they should appoint some one who will. Brief reports are the most desirable.
